Summary

Online Retail in Israel industry profile provides top-line qualitative and quantitative summary information including: market share, market size (value and volume 2016-21, and forecast to 2026). The profile also contains descriptions of the leading players including key financial metrics and analysis of competitive pressures within the market.

Key Highlights

- The online retail market includes all sales within Clothing & Footwear, Electricals, Food & Grocery, Health & Beauty, Home and Other (Books, News & Stationery, Jewelry & Watches, Luggage & Leather Goods, Music, Video & Entertainment Software, Sports & Leisure Equipment and others) segments, provided they take place over the internet, where the payment does not occur in-store on a later occasion. Data is included irrespective of whether the vendor is a pure-play internet company or the online offering of a bricks and mortar retailer. Online specialists retailers include sell only via the internet. Other online retail is a sell done online by retailers that also operate via offline channels (in-store, mail order, direct selling, etc.)
- The Israeli online retail market had total revenues of $5,610.1m in 2021, representing a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 25.8% between 2017 and 2021.
- Online Specialists account for the largest proportion of sales in the Israeli online retail market in 2021, sales through this channel generated $4,277.9m, equivalent to 76.3% of the market's overall value.
- Israel presents an excellent opportunity for foreign online sellers of consumer goods. Foreign-owned websites such as the US firms Amazon and eBay, and Chinese firm Alibaba, which are subject to less strict VAT regulations than online retailers with physical presence in Israel, dominate the market.
