Report description:

While all home and garden categories saw high current value growth in 2022, driven by the inordinately high inflation rates seen in Turkey throughout the year, gardening was the only home and garden category that saw demand increase at constant 2022 prices as well. Gardening became a popular hobby in Turkey during the pandemic, as restrictions on visiting public spaces made consumers yearn for nature and greenery, which they sought to recreate within their homes. Consumers fulfilled this desire...
