Report description:

Extremely high inflation rates in Turkey in 2022 drove high current value growth in home furnishings in the country, but also caused a significant contraction in value demand at constant 2022 prices, as consumers were forced to decrease the amount in their budgets allocated for purchasing furniture. Price pressures also drove consumers to trade down in terms of materials, with inexpensive, ready-to-assembly (RTA) furniture gaining popularity. In response, brands also stocked more of these inexpe...
