Report description:

The eco trend has become increasingly noticeable in baby and child-specific products in Poland. The success of natural cosmetics for adults made parents look for cosmetics with a high content of ingredients of natural origin, including vegan products with a small number of simple ingredients. However, eco-products for small children remain a niche category. The leading players in this field are brands such as Nivea Baby and Bambino, which have been valued for many years, while examples of eco pr...
