Report description:

2022 was another positive year for bath and shower in Algeria, although retail volume growth was slightly lower than the previous year as inflation suppressed demand somewhat. Bath and shower benefits from being an essential, everyday product in Algeria and so volume sales have remained robust. Current value growth in 2022 has largely been driven by surging inflation as manufacturers increased prices. Hand sanitisers saw a further drop in volume growth over 2022 as the threat of COVID-19 receded...
