Report description:

2022 saw bath and shower benefit from improvements that have been seen in the personal hygiene habits of large numbers of Moroccans since the early days of the COVID-19 pandemic. Growing frequency of usage as consumers have sought to maintain stricter personal hygiene regimens continued to drive volume growth in 2022, along with population growth. Moreover, demand for bath and shower products increased sharply following the easing of the social distancing restrictions in 2022, which presaged a r...
