Report description:

Hand sanitisers had another very challenging year during 2022 as demand for these products continued to plummet during the post-pandemic era. Hand sanitisers were virtually unknown in Romania prior to the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic and sales soared during 2020 as consumers looked to minimise the risk of coming to contact with the COVID-19 virus. However, with the threat of contagion having fallen substantially over the course of 2021 and into 2022, demand for hand sanitisers has come under e...
