Report description:

Despite poor economic conditions, colour cosmetics recorded a positive performance in 2022. However, most products saw slower retail volume sales due to weaker consumer spending power caused by high inflation, while the high increases in unit prices, drove retail value growth. Nevertheless, key colour cosmetics products such as foundation/concealer, powder, and eye shadow saw moderate volume growth, driven by demand from the growing female population. In addition, despite the conditions, premium...
