Report description:

During the outbreak of COVID-19 and the consequential lockdown period, the colour cosmetics category was the area in beauty and personal care that saw the greatest decline. All products offered in colour cosmetics saw a dramatic decline in sales, with ongoing home seclusion negatively impacting lip products and facial make-up. Lip products were further impacted by consumers continuing to wear masks covering their lips. While 2021 had been a cautious recovery, moving into 2022, there was a comple...
