Report description:

Consumers with high incomes tend to remain loyal to certain brands even in the midst of a challenging economic environment, as they have become used to the product and they do not like to change it. However, in 2022, lower-income consumers who were facing financial difficulties were strongly motivated to look for a less expensive alternative. Moreover, consumers looking to economise can also replace deodorants with natural products or even avoid buying a deodorant at all. Pricing is extremely im...
