Report description:

One of the few positive outcomes of the COVID-19 pandemic for sales of deodorants was that many local consumers are now paying more attention to their personal hygiene routines. In particular, young men are becoming much more conscious about body odour. The extremely hot weather that prevail for much of 2022, combined with the difficult and crowded commutes that many local men must endure on a daily basis, brought body odour issues into sharp focus, resulting in more men purchasing deodorants to...
