Report description:

Mainstream deodorant brands such as Nivea, Rexona and Dove continued to dominate the product area in 2022, benefitting from their strong presence at major grocery retailers. As most consumers purchase deodorants during their grocery runs, mainstream brands that are present at major supermarkets have dominant market share. Similar to other personal care staples, consumers often shop around bargains for deodorants, stocking up on their favourite brands when discounted. In order to grow market shar...
