Report description:

Retail value sales of depilatories saw an improved performance in current value terms in 2022, compared with 2021. While this was partially due to inflationary pressures, which increased unit prices, demand was boosted by the easing of pandemic-related restrictions, which saw local consumers spend more time outside the home, including socialising more frequently and taking beach holidays. Moreover, with the country having experienced one of the longest and hottest summers on record, this transla...
