Report description:

The closure of beauty salons and restrictions on consumer mobility in light of the Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic, with a national lockdown in April 2021, as well as strong downward pressure on purchasing power, saw many consumers perform beauty routines, including hair removal, at home. This helped depilatories to return to retail volume growth in 2021. The ongoing economic fallout of COVID-19, exacerbated by high inflation and an energy crisis, continued this practice, leading to stronger ret...
