Report description:

Fragrances saw its first high single-digit decline in 2022, due to the limitations of offline purchasing due to the pandemic, and fewer occasions to wear fragrances. However, this trend is expected to reverse with the end of the pandemic policy, and sales are expected to return to high growth in 2023, with the overall fragrances category still in a buoyant state. For China, a more emerging market for fragrances, the size of the consumer base for fragrances is still on the rise, and the frequency...
