Report description:

Fragrances showed strong sales performance in 2022, with retail value and volume growth being double-digit in many areas - particularly for premium products. The recovery following COVID-19 boosted these high levels of growth, as consumers begin to socialise once more. In addition to the high demand, retail value sales were also boosted by premiumisation. Despite rising inflation, many were willing to pay a higher price for quality products, and premium fragrances recorded a much stronger perfor...
