Report description:

With hair salons closed in previous years due to COVID-19, current retail volume sales have declined in many areas in 2022 - with consumers no longer doing all their hair care within the household. In accordance, salon professional hair care benefited in 2022, being sold to clients returning to the salon environment. This led to the product recording the highest current retail volume and value growth. In contrast, 2-in-1 products suffered as consumers looked for personalisation and customisation...
