Report description:

Salon professional hair care was the best performing category within hair care in 2022 as volume and value sales rose despite the pressure that came on household incomes and consumer spending due to high inflation during the year. The most important influence on the category's strong performance was the complete lifting of social distancing protocols and COVID-19 control measures, which meant that consumers were able to freely visit hairdressing salons and beauty parlours, resulting in higher ex...
