Report description:

Hair care recorded a strong performance in terms of overall current value growth in 2022, but this was predominantly driven by unit price hikes, as established categories such as standard shampoos and colourants continued to contract in volume terms. Falling demand in these categories was a continuation of trends in recent years, which saw more consumers shift to salon professional hair care, which recorded solid volume growth in 2022, as salons benefited from a full year of operation without lo...
