Report description:

Some Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic habits continued at the end of the review period, such as the increase in the demand for colourants. Due to the strong pressure on purchasing power, many consumers continued to carry out their hair and beauty regimes at home, instead of seeking the help of professionals in salons, in order to save money. Manufacturers of hair care products might seek to entice consumers by downsizing their products, in this way keeping unit prices stable. The owners of the Pa...
