Report description:

In 2022, mass beauty and personal care witnessed an increase in retail value sales, although this was to be expected due to Croatia's high inflation rate and rising unit prices. Supply chain bottlenecks and rising fuel prices related to the war in Ukraine, drove up the general cost of living, while unemployment remained stubbornly high and most workers saw their salaries stagnate or only increase marginally in real terms. With consumers reigning in expenditure, mass products took retail share fr...
