Report description:

In 2022 men's shaving declined in terms of volume sales despite the easing of pandemic restrictions and consumers spending more time outside their homes. However, the decline across all product areas within men's shaving does not imply that Argentinian men are neglecting their appearance. On the contrary, men are increasingly demanding high-quality razors and blades, typically with two or three blades, shifting away from cheaper alternatives. As a result, men need to shave less frequently with a...
