Report description:

Men's grooming continued to experience steady and robust growth in 2022. While growth rates were slower than the previous year, they still outperformed the category average of the review period, indicating that men's grooming has become a popular and essential part of many Chilean men's lifestyles. Particularly strong performers in 2022 were premium men's fragrances, men's hair care, men's deodorants, and men's razors and blades. The reason for this surge can be attributed to a growing shift in...
