Report description:

Inflation was a significant factor in Colombia in 2022, as in spite of higher oil prices, as a result of the Ukrainian war, which benefitted Colombian oil exports, other factors such as global supply constraints and currency depreciation, led to higher prices. As a result, though men's grooming registered a double-digit increase in current value sales, constant value sales only increased marginally, and volume sales fell significantly. Overall, men's fragrances were the best performers and regis...
