Report description:

Men's grooming saw high single-digit current value growth in 2022 with sales expanding to beyond pre-pandemic levels. The easing of COVID-19 related restrictions, such as the removal of the obligation to wear face masks in shops in May, in most offices from the summer and on public transport and in schools from September, led male consumers to spend less time at home and encouraged them to feel keener to go out more often. Remote working was also less popular in 2022 than in the previous year an...
