Report description:

During the financially challenging and highly inflationary year of 2022, the two main (and staple) categories of toothpaste and manual toothbrushes showed resilience, displaying only marginal volume declines. For toothpaste, value sales nevertheless recorded slightly positive growth, which was partially due to inflation, as well as to consumers moving towards a more expensive product mix, driven by the momentum of the "gum health" segment. In fact, key 2022 trends revolved around health (gum hea...
