Report description:

Oral care saw a weak performance in 2022, as Spanish consumers' fears of contracting the COVID-19 virus began to wane. Overall, the pandemic provided a boost to demand for oral care, as dentists were closed during the lockdown, as they were not deemed to be essential services by the government. Consequently, some treatments normally performed at dental practices, such as teeth whitening, were replaced with home-based alternatives. In addition, demand for mouth washes/dental rinses was particular...
