Report description:

In 2023, pet care in Slovakia is experiencing ongoing turbulence due to the mounting economic pressures on household expenditure. Pet ownership stopped rising at the end of the review period following a spike during the COVID-19 pandemic, and started falling as pet owners realised they lack the time or routine necessary to handle a new pet. With consumers facing a cost of living crisis, higher retail prices are hampering retail volume growth in 2023, while current value growth hits double-digits...
