Report description:

In 2022, premium beauty and personal care in North Macedonia experienced strong double-digit percentage growth despite the rising unit prices of premium products. This growth was driven by inflationary trends, particularly in the first half of the year. Despite the ongoing challenge of negative demographic growth, there is a niche consumer segment comprising individuals with high and medium-high incomes who continue to drive growth in the market. These consumers exhibit a growing interest in and...
