Report description:

Croatians were impacted by rising inflation in 2022 and faced a cost of living crisis similar to many shoppers across Europe. As the economy started to emerge from the COVID-19 pandemic, the war in Ukraine and rising costs of energy and raw materials pushed up inflation, giving rise to higher retail prices across multiple product categories. Croatia's adoption of the euro currency started to bring significant logistical challenges for retailers in the last quarter of the year as the transition p...
