Report description:

Body wash/shower gel is the best-performing category in 2022 as more Costa Ricans are trying the product and preferring it to bar soap despite the lower price tag of bar soap. The pandemic pushed consumers away from soap, as they did not want to use a product that someone else had already used and this behaviour continued in 2022. Body wash/shower gel is also seen as less messy, and more convenient for washing. Category sales are further benefitting from increased product variety and availability...
