Report description:

Coca-Cola divested its bottling operations in the northern part of India in 2019. Eventually, it plans to divest all its bottling operations through franchising. The company, through its bottling entity, Hindustan Coca-Cola Beverages (HCCB), operates 25 plants in the rest of India. The company wants to build brands, increase consumption occasions and expand its customer base. The first step towards building brands is expanding its retail store footprint to 4.0 million outlets, from the current 2...
