Report description:

After two years of mobility restrictions and considerably reduced time spent outside the home, Peruvians were able to restart their social lives in 2022. Schools and universities re-opened and jobs returned to the workplace, creating the space for a resumption in social lives with people seeking to make up for lost time with their friends and families. Consumers once again focused on their appearance, seeking to look good for these social gatherings and to reduce the impact that two years of con...
