Report description:

Depilatories witnessed slower retail volume and current value growth in 2022 compared to the previous year. Demand for razors and blades continued to recover from the COVID-19 pandemic, as consumers took to shaving more frequently now that they were out of home more. With beauty/hair salons reopening, consumers have moved back to hair removal out of home, leading to a decline in sales of hair removers/bleaches for the second year. In 2020, hair removers/bleaches presented major sales because of...
