Report description:

Fragrances continues to show recovery in volume terms, with value boosted by price increases. Fragrances suffered during the era of the pandemic but started to return to more balanced sales patterns as consumers returned to sociable out-of-home lifestyles, thus they began to use fragrances more often. However, at the same time, supply chain disruptions have created challenges for global players - who dominate fragrances in Uzbekistan.

Euromonitor International's Fragrances in Uzbekistan report offers a comprehensive guide to the size and shape of the market at a national level.
