Report description:

In August 2022, Unilever Israel Ltd ceased offering discounts on their beauty and personal care products, including hair care, which resulted in an increase in prices. Furthermore, on 1 November, Unilever declared a price hike of 6-20% for hair care, including Pinuk. However, Shufersal did not approve of the price increases and on 3 November, announced that there will be a shortage of Unilever products in its supermarkets. The retailer also placed signs in its stores to inform customers that the...
