Report description:

Standard shampoos showed the fastest retail volume and current value growth in 2022 as consumers reduced consumption of 2-in-1 combined products. There is a growing preference for buying higher quality and more expensive standard shampoos, which is encouraging sales of salon professional hair care. Amidst growing concerns about hair health, consumers have sought extra treatment products (like masks, no-rinse conditioners, and oils) that they may not have previously used before. This trend is obs...
