Report description:

Mass beauty and personal care still accounted for significantly more value sales than premium in 2022. However, its current value growth was slightly lower. High inflation, due to the war in Ukraine, which in turn increased global energy prices, dampened volume sales somewhat. In addition, the impact of inflation was more severe on mass products, as its consumers are much more price sensitive. That being said, there was growth, and the segment benefitted from society opening up once again post p...
