Report description:

Private label expanded significantly in the mass beauty and personal care segment in 2022. The general rise in the popularity of discounters in the Slovenian market played a key role in the development of private label during the year, as discounters place private label at the centre of their product offer. The most popular discounters are Hofer (Aldi) and Lidl, which are expanding their stores across the country. These stores are usually positioned near highways or business centres, where the m...
