Report description:

The mass beauty and personal care products segment recorded moderate value growth in 2022 as consumers started using products more frequently again due to the revival of activity levels - spending more time socialising, being physically active, working away from home and so on. This shift in consumer behaviour had a particularly marked positive impact on categories such as deodorants, colour cosmetics such as lip products, and depilatories. In addition, rising average unit prices, mainly due to...
