Report description:

Men's grooming began its recovery from the COVID-19 pandemic in 2022. After two years of consecutive decline, demand is rising as socialising becomes more prominent and workers return to the office. In 2020, home seclusion led consumers to swap male-specific products for family products. Although there was some recovery in 2021, smuggling became a growing issue which further hampered sales. In 2022, companies have increased promotional activities at point of sale including merchandising on speci...
