Report description:

In January 2022, Diplomat, distributor of the men's shaving brand Gillette (Procter & Gamble Israel MOD Ltd), announced that it would be raising prices of their products by 4-16% in March. Usually, Diplomat collaborates with retailers to determine increases and deals, but this time they sent a list of price increases without discussion. Due to consumer and government pressures, the increase date was pushed back until after Passover. However, even after the holiday, stores were still refusing the...
