Report description:

Following the drop in sales recorded in the first year of the pandemic, men's grooming has made a strong recovery, with solid increases in retail volume and current value sales. The back-to-work trend encouraged men to resume their old grooming habits, leading to a positive impact on the category. However, men in Kazakhstan are generally taking more interest and care of their appearance which is driving growth of hair, face and body products. Nevertheless, most men in Kazakhstan remain quite con...
