Report description:

Premium beauty and personal care saw strong performance in 2022, gaining share at the expense of mass brands most categories. While current value growth was noticeably boosted by inflation and rising unit prices, sales were also driven by an increase in the number of social occasions, such as parties and weddings, where premium products tend to be more desired and more socially acceptable than their mass equivalents. Indeed, the normalisation of consumer behaviour, following the COVID-19 crisis,...
