Report description:

Skin care continued as one of the best-performing categories in beauty and personal care in 2022, having defied expectations during the COVID-19 pandemic. Consumption was driven by a combination of a consumer focus on personal hygiene and skin health, combined with the trend towards at-home indulgence., as consumers sought to pamper themselves at home. In this sense, skin care served as a focal point for consumer attention, cannibalising sales of colour cosmetics and fragrances. With consumers r...
