Report description:

In 2023, sunglasses sees robust growth as consumer spending has rebounded to pre-pandemic levels. The recovery of travel and tourism play a vital role in driving sunglasses sales, as Canadians have resumed international travel following the easing of COVID-19 restrictions. On October 1, 2022, the Canadian federal government lifted its remaining travel restrictions, facilitating increased travel opportunities. This was evident during the traditional March break period, where online travel search...
