Report description:

During the pandemic, the Ministry of Agriculture and Rural Affairs encouraged local citizens to grow their own vegetables at home to ensure food security. The notice encouraged them to make use of their balconies, rooftops, and other available spaces to plant vegetables and herbs. This initiated a "grow-your-own" food culture in China and positively impacted demand for seeds, growing media and plant protection, with sales continuing to rise in 2022. Many consumers in China now enjoy growing their...
