Report description:

Despite the easing of restrictions in 2022, many local consumers continued to spend greater time at home with remote working remaining a relevant trend. This resulted in consumers cooking at home more frequently and hence, using the kitchen more often. This was one of the main reasons why homewares continued to record positive growth in 2022. Another reason for this positive performance was the combination of inflationary pressures and the war in Ukraine, which resulted in rising prices of commo...
