Report description:

Consumption of tax-paid cigarettes continues to fall in 2022, with many consumers eschewing locally manufactured cigarettes in favour of either illicit imports or traditional cheroots and quids. Demand for the Red Ruby brand continues to decline sharply due to a consumer boycott stemming from the brand's links to the military junta. Sales of cigars are plummeting due to the absence of foreigners, while e-vapour products is poised to emerge strongly due to rising demand among younger consumers.
