Report description:

A strict approach towards the sale of tobacco products and smoking in public and educational campaigns form the core of Qatar's efforts to reduce smoking prevalence. Qatar has modernised and promulgated its tobacco laws in recent years and this reduced smoking prevalence. However, tobacco sales are rising due to population growth and the return to socialising in the on-trade during the post-pandemic era, which has led to a rise in social smoking of cigars, cigarettes and shisha pipe tobacco.
